

Jason T. Miller, CPA
Senior Accountant

Jason joined Rice, Sullivan & Co. in 2007. As a senior accountant, he has experience working with an array of clients, and focuses primarily on serving small businesses. Jason provides comprehensive audit and tax services for the firm's clients.

Jason's professional career began in 1999. Before joining Rice, Sullivan & Co., he worked for a leading life insurance company for seven years as a senior tax accountant. Jason was responsible for preparing federal and state tax returns, collecting and analyzing financial information for financial reporting purposes and coordinating periodic regulatory audits. He also served as the manager of accounting for a local sports franchise. There Jason's main duties included managing accounting and reporting functions for the facility, reconciling general ledger accounting, reviewing monthly financial statements and coordinating settlements for ticketed events. The knowledge and understanding Jason has gained over the past 10 years has built a strong platform for his current role serving clients at Rice, Sullivan & Co.

Jason currently resides in Belleville with his wife and two sons. In his free time, he enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family.
